Instructions:

How we can help you very much depends on the nature of the assets and liabilities involved. For example, a will only controls a decedent's individually owned and tenant in common property interests. Trusts only control property titled to the trustee. Jointly owned property with a right of survivorship will pass to the survivor regardless of what an individual's will or trust provides. Life insurance, qualified plans and IRAs, and annuities generally pass at death by virtue of the owner's beneficiary designation. As such, it is important that we obtain a good understanding as to how you owned his or her property at death.

Please complete this Financial Information Questionnaire as completely and as legibly as possible. If you are using Adobe Acrobat on your computer to fill in your answers, the questionnaire contains a number of "drop-down boxes" that give you choices to save typing. If you see a little box at the right edge of an entry, use your mouse to click on the box, and you will be presented with a number of typical choices. If these choices do not allow you to provide correct information, feel free to type the correct information into the box on your own. Also, to save you time and typing, we use a convention that if an entry is blank but the rest of the line is completed, the blank box means "Same as above". Consequently, if you complete a line but don't know the answer to an information item, please enter a " ? " in the appropriate box.

Thus, in the following example,

	Owner(s)
1	Decedent	sdf ghj rtyu
2	Same Owner(s) as Above	sdf ghj rtyu
3		sdf ghj rtyu
4	?	sdf ghj rtyu

the answers in Lines 1 and 2 both mean the same thing and point to "Decedent" in Line 1, and the Owner in Line 4 is unknown but possibly was the Decedent.

If we haven't supplied enough entry lines for the Decedent's particular assets, feel free to use the "Anything Else of Value" entries at the end or a blank sheet of paper.

Finally, if you are answering with reference to the Decedent and another person or persons, it is important that we know exactly who you are referring to. Please therefore identify "Individual 1" and "Individual 2" below:

Decedent refers to: _____ Individual 1 refers to: _____
